

Coos Head Bulk Section

Bulk departments offer products where you decide how much to buy. They have been the cornerstone of natural food stores and cooperatives from the beginning. They offer significant savings because containers are such a high proportion of total cost.

Coos Head Food Coop Bulk boasts the most extensive bulk selection on the Oregon coast: raw, gluten-free, organic, paleo-friendly, vegan, vegetarian; herbs & spices, mixes, pantry staples, teas, nuts and seeds, dried fruits and snacks, as well as cleaning and body care products.

Check out what we have. Lists aren't exhaustive, so if you don't find it here, call us!

- Bulk Food & Pantry Items
- Bulk Herbs, Spices & Teas
- Bulk Health & Beauty Care, Cleaning

How does buying in bulk work?

Coos Head always has a variety of bags and containers for bulk purchases, but you can also do the world good by reusing clean containers you already have. Not only do you get significant price reduction when you purchase this way, but you also keep usable materials out of a landfill.

What do you need to bring?

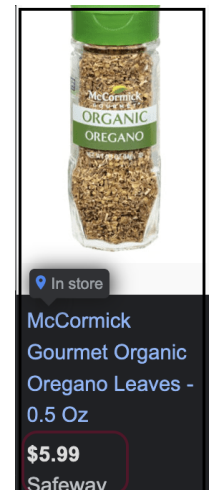

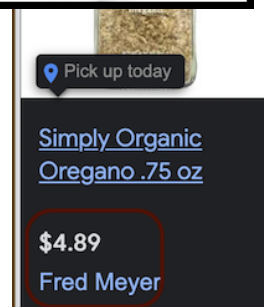

BYOCC (Bring Your Own Clean Container)

- clean, dry containers & lids
- blacked out UPC bar codes

How much can you really save this way?

Here's an example:

- $1.99 to $4.89 to buy typical jar of oregano (not necessarily organic)
 - $5.99 for McCormick Organic at Safeway: 81% less!
 - $4.89 for Simply Organic at Fred Meyer: 77% less!
 - $1.99 for Spice Islands at Grocery Outlet: 44% less!
- $1.10 to refill jar at Coos Head
 - 44% - 81% price reduction
 - Refill with the finest oregano available

This isn't unusual. Containers are often the most expensive components of a purchase and create more landfill if the container isn't reused.
